Welcome to Autumn 2025 at the Cresset!

The Cresset is a unique place. Where else would you find a 900-seat theatre, conference facilities, shops, a vibrant pub, library, Day Centre and Creche, Youth Programme, accommodation, busy church and a wedding garden? Our theatre is pretty special too – completely flexible, it can host anything from comedy to christenings and opera to wrestling!

We have two big missions at the Cresset: to give our loyal audience some great nights out and special memories, watching some of the best comedians and musicians there are; and to warmly welcome our local community, especially young people. The building is managed by the YMCA, and every ticket or ice cream you buy go towards supporting their vital work.

This Autumn's programme has the lot! Big name comedians like Jack Dee, Dara O'Briain and Omid Djalili are coming back to Bretton. Iconic music from world-famous tribute artists bringing to life the likes of Whitney Houston, Elvis, George Michael, and Genesis.

Theatre and jazz fans will love Apphia Campbell's mesmerising play Black is the Color of My Voice, which features all the legendary jazz star and civil rights activist's most famous songs. And how about stand-up Shakespeare? S-Faced Shakespeare is exactly what it says – a drink-fuelled romp through the classics by one of our funniest local theatre companies. Unrepeatable and unmissable!

Then there's our home-grown spectacles. First we have the Cresset Arts and Theatre School's Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, featuring no less than 80 local children; and the legendary Cresset Panto, this year Beauty and the Beast. Come 'glitter it up' with us this Christmas!

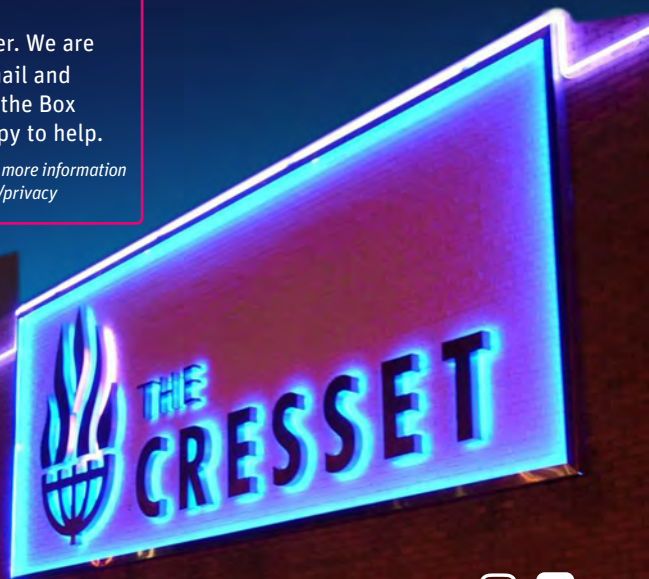

And finally, we can help you create unforgettable events of your own! We have hosted hundreds of weddings, parties and celebrations over the years – every single one different, designed for you and your budget.

We look forward to seeing you at the Cresset – a warm welcome is what we do best!
