Laughter, Music, Magic and more at The Cresset

There's something for everyone coming up at the Cresset! As usual, you can see the very best comedy - Susan Calman, Al Murray and Chris Ramsey all feature - alongside music ranging from Ska to K-pop to Country; Motown to Bon Jovi. Family shows which will delight little ones such as My First Concert and Spot's Birthday Party are in, alongside world-famous dance - Adam Garcia's Emerald Storm - and cheeky burlesque. Theatre fans will want to catch Buffy Revamped based on the cult classic 90s TV show, while Sh!t-faced Shakespeare returns with slightly more booze than Bard. Then, in December, this year's legendary Cresset panto flies into Bretton with Peter Pan - and we promise you'll believe fairies can fly!

Over 40,000 people came to see a show at the Cresset last year, helping to support the vital work of the YMCA. We're especially proud of our new Community Hub, which is already buzzing with an inspirational programme for young people, cookery classes and Digital Hub. Your night out makes those important community resources possible. We look forward to seeing you!
