The Cresset is full of surprises...

Welcome to the Spring 2026 season at Peterborough's most versatile large-scale venue for music, comedy, and entertainment. Originally built to be the 'hub' of Bretton, the Cresset takes its name from an old French word for a basket of fire kept continuously alight and placed at the focal point of a medieval village. Having been at the heart of our community for nearly 50 years, we still aim to light up the journey through to the warmer, longer days ahead.

Last year we presented more shows and welcomed more people through our doors than ever before, including a record-breaking pantomime season. The New Year sees us looking at ways to engage new audiences and build partnerships with more of our brilliant local artists and cultural groups. We are working with Peterborough's own Jumped Up Theatre to present BAC Beatbox Academy in their explosive, inventive, hip-hop family musical Pied Piper, complete with guest performances from local youngsters who have been training with the professional artists over months. Pied Piper is the latest creation from the team that made the 5-star, West End smash and BBC film Frankenstein: How to Make a Monster and will be here on 3 March. It's exactly the sort of show that should be at the Cresset - genre-defying, crowd-pleasing magic with young people, opportunity, and new skills at its heart.

March will also see the opening of our brand-new Community Hub, which will house the YMCA Youth Programme, Digital Hub, Community Kitchen and much, much more. Details of the full programme can be found at ymcatrinitygroup.org.uk/Bretton-community-hub/ or follow our social media channels for lastminute additions to the events and services on offer.

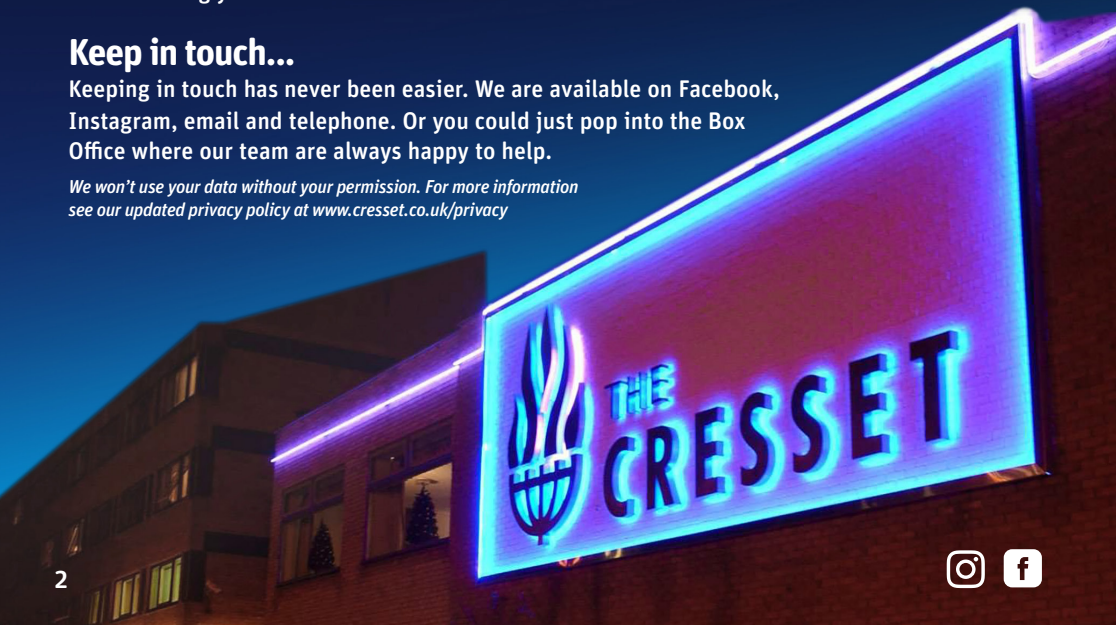

Alongside our usual programme of world-class comedy and the best 'homage' bands in the country, we've added a few surprises too. Legendary saxophonist Andy Sheppard brings his Quartet to Peterborough for his only outside London gig this Spring (19 Feb); we have two brilliantly funny plays Biff to the Future (24 Feb) and My Life with Kenneth Williams (13 Mar); the one and only Nigel Havers sharing stories from his decades in film and TV (24 Mar) lots of shows 'back by popular demand'. And of course, we will all be dancing to We Will Rock You, Peterborough Opera and Dramatic Society's latest spectacular - one of the first UK amateur companies to get the rights to this record-breaking West End smash!

There's so much more too. We hope you enjoy reading about the treats ahead and look forward to welcoming you at the Cresset soon.

Keep in touch...

Keeping in touch has never been easier. We are available on Facebook, Instagram, email and telephone. Or you could just pop into the Box Office where our team are always happy to help.
